

Find your PERFECT MATCH

Which Jane Austen character are you? Find out what kind of girl you are – and what kind of man you'll be compatible with

1 You identify with?

- a. Sleeping Beauty
- b. Cinderella
- c. Beauty (and the Beast)
- d. The wicked queen in Snow White
- e. Tinkerbell
- f. The Little Mermaid

2 Your favourite film star is

- a. Anyone dark, French and sexily brooding
- b. George Clooney
- c. Colin Farrell
- d. Matthew McConaughey
- e. Viggo Mortensen
- f. Harrison Ford

3 Your favourite exercise is

- a. Dancing
- b. Yoga
- c. Riding
- d. Walking
- e. Pilates/gym workout
- f. Running

4 Your favourite game is

- a. Charades
- b. Twister
- c. Risk
- d. Card games
- e. Wink Murder/Murder in the Dark
- f. Badminton/tennis/group sports

5 Your favourite romantic film is

- a. Jerry Maguire
- b. Love Story
- c. Philadelphia Story
- d. Dirty Dancing
- e. When Harry met Sally
- f. Four Weddings and a Funeral

6 If you had to pick one reason to turn someone down, it would be because

- a. He's too old
- b. He doesn't laugh at my jokes
- c. He's not emotionally open enough
- d. He's not ambitious enough
- e. He doesn't make me feel secure
- f. He isn't passionate enough
- g. He has a tiny penis

7 You meet a really nice prospect at a bar and get talking. You're feeling frisky that evening. How does it end?

- a. You tell him flirtatiously that he should ask for your number
- b. You exchange numbers
- c. You hope he will ask for your number, but you wouldn't ask for his – you're a little shy
- d. You wait till he asks for your number, but don't take his
- e. You go dancing together
- f. You go home together

8 You've had two really good dates with a man and he said he'd call. It's been four days and he still hasn't called. What do you do?

- a. You call him
- b. You curse his name and go out drinking with your girlfriends
- c. You erase his number from your phone, feeling totally betrayed
- d. You go over and over the details of your dates with him, trying to work out what you did wrong
- e. You decide he's probably just busy at work and will call you soon
- f. You shrug your shoulders and start planning how to find a new prospect

9 You think online dating is

- a. A great idea – it's hard to meet people and anything that makes it easier is okay with you
- b. A terrifying prospect – you don't think you could convey your personality well on a dating site
- c. Unromantic – you'd rather meet people in person and feel instantly whether there's a spark
- d. A good idea in principle, but people could be telling so many lies about themselves
- e. Unnecessary; so far you've managed to meet men just fine without resorting to the Internet
- f. Something you wouldn't criticise anyone else for doing, but you would rather wait to meet someone in a more spontaneous way

10 What do you drink?

- a. What have you got?
- b. Champagne
- c. White wine/spritzers
- d. The latest trendy cocktail
- e. Red wine, vodka, and/or brandy
- f. You don't really drink much – a glass of wine or a beer is enough for you

11 You flirt

- a. With anyone who'll flirt back – gender immaterial
- b. With any good-looking man who crosses your path
- c. With men you like, but it's more mutual teasing and quick-witted banter than sexual innuendo
- d. Discreetly – it may feel to you like flirting, but your friends would never call you a flirt
- e. Yes, but you're not comfortable if the conversation gets too sexually provocative
- f. Not really – it's rare that you meet someone you really connect with. But if you like someone, you direct all your attention at him

12 You dress

- a. Down – jeans, sweaters, sneakers. You like to be comfortable
- b. Classy but sexy – you like to be noticed
- c. Attractive but not flashy
- d. In the latest trends, and you like to show skin – low-rider jeans and a belly-button piercing, if you have the figure for it
- e. Feminine – skirts, pretty tops, kitten heels
- f. To express your personality